Call for Proposals

The Montana Historical Society is seeking session proposals for its 35th Annual Montana History Conference to be held in Glasgow, Montana
October 16-18, 2008

- All interested parties are invited to submit proposals
- All topics relevant to the history and culture of Northeast Montana will be considered; in addition special emphasis will be placed on the building of Fort Peck Dam and other New Deal projects in the Treasure State
- Session formats can include lectures, slideshows, PowerPoints, workshops, panel discussions, etc.
- Each speaker generally has 30 minutes for his/her presentation

To submit a proposal please complete and return the form on back, or send a brief (one-page maximum) synopsis which includes an overview of the topic to be presented; the format of the proposed session; equipment needed; and the name(s) and qualifications of the speaker(s).

Session proposals are due April 15, 2008.
